Invertebrate Biology Instructions for Manuscript Submission (July 2025)

A. ORCID iD

An ORCID iD is required for the corresponding author to submit a manuscript. An ORCID iD can be obtained at https://orcid.org/register.

B. Invertebrate Biology Submission Site Login - https://ams.kriyadocs.com/submission/ams/ivb

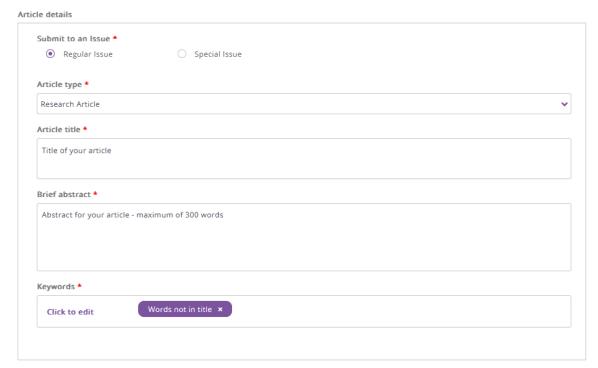

C. Manuscript submission process: 1) Article details, 2) Pre-Submission Checklist, 3) Author Details, 4) Disclosures, 5) Upload Documents, and 6) Summary and Submit

1. Articles Details

Submit to an issue: Select Regular Issue unless instructed by Editorial Staff to select special Issue Article type: Research Article, Review Article, Book Review, or in Memoriam Keywords: Should not included in your title

2. Pre-submission Checklist

Pre-submission checklist

Before continuing please make sure you have reviewed the items on the list below:

All co-authors have read and agreed on the current version of this manuscript.

I have the email addresses of all co-authors of the manuscript.

I confirm the main manuscript file is in Microsoft Word format with the tables and figures integrated in the manuscript body.

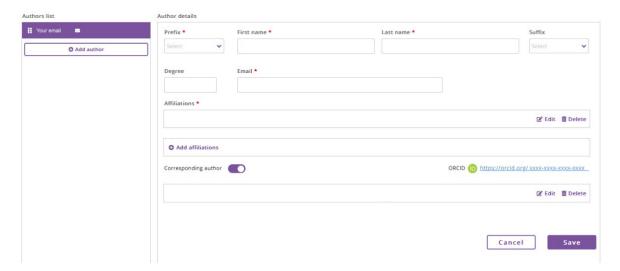

I have all additional electronic files of supplementary materials (e.g. datasets, images, audio, video) ready.

I am aware that an ORCID is required for the corresponding author before the article can be published (if accepted). The ORCID should be added via your user account.

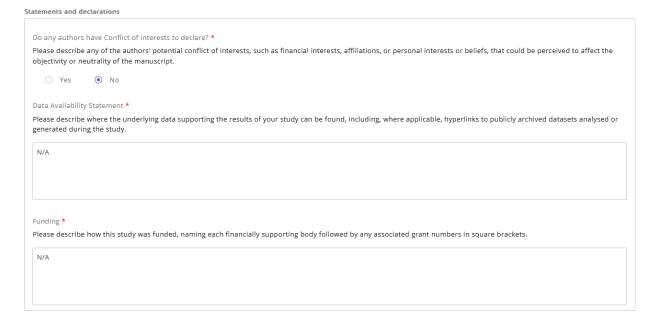

I have reviewed and understood all of the above.

3. Author Details

Enter the details for each author.

4. Disclosures - Conflicts of Interest, Data Availability, and Funding

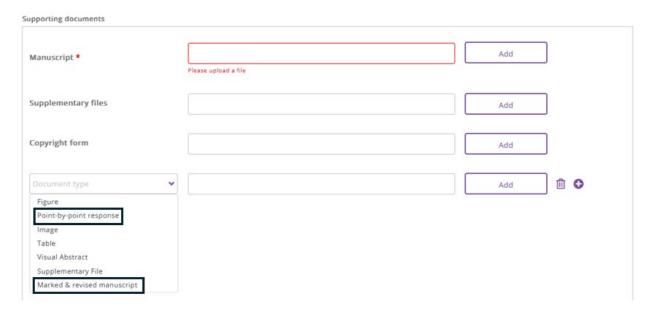

5. Supporting Documents

Manuscript: Upload a Word document formatted according to the instructions for manuscript preparation.

Supplementary files: Upload cover letter, tables, figures, and supplementary materials

Document type drop down menu: When submitting revised manuscripts, please use the document type labeled "Marked & Revised Manuscript" to upload a version of your manuscript showing the revisions to the original document using track changes. Additionally, use the document type "Point-by-Point Response" to upload a separate document explaining how you addressed the comments and questions from the editor and reviewers, unless this information is included in the cover letter.

6. Summary and Submission

Review the information about the submission and click the Submit button

